

This two-page chart is to be interpreted as a guideline only. It is intended to help applicants in identifying bureaus to which their majors may be commonly related. Bureaus require a broad range of skills and academic backgrounds to accomplish their goals, and do not limit their selections to only those majors indicated on the chart.

Bureau/Office	Major
Administration	Accounting
African Affairs	Adult Education/Training African Studies
Art Bank Program	Agriculture
Art in Embassies	Architecture
Chief of Protocol	Art History/Art Studies
Consular Affairs	Biological/Physical Sciences
Diplomatic Security	Business
Office of the Coord. For Bus. Affairs	Communications
East Asian & Pacific Affairs	Computer Science
Economic & Business Affairs	Criminal Justice
Educational & Cultural Affairs	East Asian Studies
Equal Employment Opport. Office	Economics
European Affairs	Engineering
Family Liaison Office	Environmental Studies
Finance & Management Policy	European Studies
Foreign Building Operations	Finance
Foreign Service Institute	Geography
Human Resources Management	Government
Information Resource Management	History
Intelligence & Research	Humanities
Int'l Communication. & Info Policy	Human Resources
Int'l Narcotics & Law Enforcement	Information Systems
	Interior Design
	International Relations
	Journalism
	Latin American Studies
	Law
	Library Science
	Linguistics
	Middle Eastern Studies
	Political Science
	Print Making
	Public Administration
	Public Affairs
	South Asian Studies
	Any Majors

Bureau/Office	Major
International Organizations	Accounting
Legal Advisor	Adult Education/Training
Legislative Affairs	African Studies
Near Eastern Affairs	Agriculture
Democracy, Human Rights and Labor	Architecture
Oceans & Int'l Environmental & Scientific Affairs	Art History/Art Studies
Office of Foreign Missions	Biological/Physical
Office of the Inspector General	Business
Policy Planning Staff	Communications
Political-Military Affairs	Computer Science
Population, Refugees, & Migration	Criminal Justice
International Information Programs	East Asian Studies
South Asian Affairs	Economics
Under Secretary For Arms Control & International Security Affairs	Engineering
Under Secretary for Global Affairs	Environmental Studies
United States Mission to the UN	European Studies
Western Hemisphere Affairs	Finance
	Geography
	Government
	History
	Humanities
	Human Resources
	Information Systems
	Interior Design
	International Relations
	Journalism
	Latin American Studies
	Law
	Library Science
	Linguistics
	Middle Eastern Studies
	Political Science
	Print Making
	Public Administration
	Public Affairs
	South Asian Studies
	Any Majors